FRESHMEN START CRUSADE FOR MARY-LIKENESS

Carrying their banner of maroon and white, the members of the class of '56" marched into the halls of HNA September 2. Asking Mary for her support they set out on their crusade for knowledge. They showed their wisdom early in dubbing Mary Margaret Brodersen, Valarie Hill, and Anne Schneider as their leaders. Battling furiously under the name of Knights, they exhibited their spirit and valor in sports as well as in all school activities. Their initial step toward victory was defeating the opposing foes in the magazine drive. With early success these courageous Knights show great promise for the coming years.

SOPHOMORES STRIVE FOR MARY-LIKENESS

"Let's be Mary-like" is the motto of the sophomore class this year. They are no longer freshmen, but well remember when they were, so all are helpful to the new class, starting the year with a welcome party for them—Mary-like in kindness. Everyone had fun but readily settled down to work. When Christmas time rolled around the class handed in well filled boxes to help Christ's poor—Mary-like in generosity. Though the sophomores didn't win the cup, they came close and the class was proud of its team. Mary-like in sportsmanship. Once during the year the sophomores were quiet. Retreat left its mark on them and every one profited much by it. Giving their minds and hearts to God enabled them to be Mary-like in love of Him

OUR SENIORS: MARY LIKE, NOW AND FOREVER

Through their four years at Holy Names, the Spartans, class of '53, have been hailed victorious: victorious in the spiritual, scholastic and athletic fields. They have held Our Lady as a perpetual guide, ever trying to imitate her virtuous life. They have proven their ability scholastically by maintaining a high average on the honor roll. They have consistently portrayed good sportsmanship and skill in athletics. As they have led in our school so they will lead in the world lead others to Christ by their example as they strive to Mary-likeness
